

Covid-19 antigen flow chart

Employee has Healthy Performance Covid-19 antigen test

✓ TESTS POSITIVE

✗ TESTS NEGATIVE

- Healthy Performance will notify employer of a positive result
- People in the same household need to also self-isolate for 14 days.
- Work colleagues only need to self-isolate if they have been in close proximity (less than 2 metres for 15 minutes or more)

Employee immediately notifies line manager and goes home to self-isolate for 10 days

Employee continues working and adhering to PHE guidelines

Employee is self-isolating

If they get any symptoms they must continue to self-isolate and get an NHS test as soon as possible

✓ GETS SYMPTOMS

✗ NO SYMPTOMS

Employee must contact NHS to get a Covid-19 test
NHS recommends you tell people you've been in close contact with that you have symptoms

Employee continues to self-isolate until 10 day period completed

✓ TESTS POSITIVE

✗ TESTS NEGATIVE

Employee must report to their line manager that they have tested positive and they need to re-start the self-isolation period

Employee must self-isolate for at least another 10 days

Employee must continue to self-isolate for at least 10 days from date of Healthy Performance test

If these people develop symptoms then they must contact NHS to get a Covid-19 test

- Same household must self-isolate for 14 days
- Support bubble must self-isolate for 14 days

Information correct as at 28th October 2020.
For latest guidance please go to <https://www.nhs.uk/conditions/coronavirus-covid-19>